Book Week - 2017

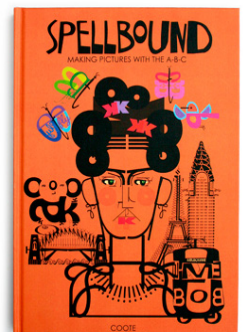

The Scholastic Book Fair arrives at our school next week, Monday, September 4th until Friday 8th. The Book Fair will be held in our Assembly Hall and will be open from 8:30am until 3:30pm each day.

We have lots of fun activities planned for the week such as;

- DRESS-UP DAY PARADE: On Wednesday, 6th September children can come dressed up as a character from one of their favourite books or as advised by their class teacher. We will have a parade to show off the children's costumes at approx. 9:15am in the basement. This will NOT be judged and is just for fun. Everyone is welcome to attend. Why not visit the Book Fair after the parade?
- SPECIAL GUEST APPEARANCE: A special guest will be appearing at our parade... You will just love this cuddly, charismatic character!
- READ-ON-A-RUG: The older classes will be sharing books with groups of younger children on picnic rugs out on the playground on Wednesday straight after the Dress-up Parade.
- BUDDY SHARING of STORIES: Older students will be sharing their favourite story books with our younger students during LUNCHtime library on Thursday.
- YEAR 5: Visiting Pre-schools to share literacy.
- RAFFLE: Every person purchasing a book during Book Week will receive a free bookmark as well as going into the draw to win a set of books.
- SHOPPING: Parents, grandparents & friends are all invited to visit the Book Fair to maybe do a bit of early Christmas shopping or purchase books for family or friends.
- COMPETITIONS: Each class has entered art work based on a book chosen from this year's short-listed books. There will be prizes for first, second & third place in each class. All work will be displayed in the library.
- AUTHOR VISIT: In Week 5 Lucas Proudfoot (Indigenous children's performer, musician, author) visited our school for an amazing whole school performance. Workshops were offered on creative writing with a visit from the Storyboard bus. This was a free event made possible by the Byron Bay Writer's Festival.
A huge thank you to them for making this possible.

As you can see we will be very busy and would love if you could join us.
